POLICE STILL LOOKING FOR ACCUSED MURDERER

August Buono Remains at Liberty--Sanflippi's Funeral Held

INQUEST DATE IS SET

In spite of a thorough search that has been continued since Tuesday night, August Buono, who is accused of shooting to death Calarego Sanflippi, is still at large. Today members of the state police force located at Monessen and local officers are at work endeavoring to find some trac of the man who disappeared as though he had dropped from earth.

The funeral for Sanflippi was held this morning at 10 o'clock with obsequies at the Mother of Sorrows Italian church. Interment was in Calvary cemetery.

Coroner James T. Heffran will hold his inquest into the death of Sanflippi tonight. Meanwhile the search for Buono will be continued. Police of all towns of the western end of the state have been notified to be on the watch for him.

STEEL MILLS AT GARY STARTED

Six thousand men went back to work at the Gary, Ind., steel mills early this week, after an idleness of several weeks. A general improvement of business in the steel industry, officials of the big corporation say is responsible for the resumption.

"The bottom has dropped out of the business depression in the United States" said an official of the steel company. "From now on we expect an upward trend in the business thermometer all over the nation."

The men who went back to work were set at work in the steel mills, the tinplate mills and the plant of the American Bridge company, indicating general improvement. Small steel products for agricultural implement factories, steel and iron plates for ore steamers and many small jobs from the Pittsburg mills are expected to come there, while the eastern mills are turning out armour plate for the allies. Parts for automobiles also will be turned out at the plants which are now running from 60 to 70 per cent. of the normal capacity.

"The railroaders have not yet begun placing orders because of their financial difficulties, but they must soon begin buying rails" say the steel company officials. Even now they are figuring and getting estimates and that's a very good sign. "Buying will be in large quantities because many of the roads have neglected to purchase at all during the period of depression. When the railroad orders begin to come in, prosperity can be said to have returned to the steel business."

Increases at California

Valuation Boosted to the Extent of $65,000 According to Assessor

The returns of the assessor of California shows that there is an increase in the tax valuations in the borough of about $65,000. A number of buildings are in process of erection, which could not be assessed, and which will when completed, greatly increase the valuation of the taxable property in the borough.

Much building has been done in California during the summer and fall, and much is still unfinished. It is stated that there are a good many men there now out of employment. They are said to be coming in from all sections of the country.

BAUM TO BE CANDIDATE

Washington Man Writes to Friends Concerning Distrist Attorneyship

Attorney Isaac W. Baum, a well known member of the Washington county bar, at present solicitor for the county commissioners, has given notice that he will be a candidate for district attorney on the Republican ticket at the primaries next September.

Mr. Baum has made no formal announcement, but in letters sent out to his friends he gives notice that he expects to be in the field for the office. The early announcement of one of the other members of the bar as a candidate for the office of district attorney, he says, has required him to call the attention of his friends to the fact that he will be a candidate.

Mr. Baum says he considers it too early to begin a campaign, as he does not wish to take up his own time, or that of his friends, so far ahead; but he would like them to keep in mind the fact that at the proper time he shall formally announce his candidacy and solicit their support.

Mr. Baum is prominent in Republican ranks and was a candidate for the office against C. L. V. Acheson, former district attorney, the fight for the place being close. He was formerly a member of the Washington borough council, and was active in the interests of the borough.

J. Winfield Reed, cashier of the People's National Bank and former chairman of the Democratic county committee, is being urged by his friends for the position of Clerk of the United States district court in Pittsburg to succeed the late William T. Lindsay. The position pays a salary of $4,000 per year and is considered a life job, as removal can only be made for cause. The name of Arthur McKean of Beaver Falls, secretary of the Democratic state committee, has been frequently used in connection with this office and on account of his close relationship with the present Democratic organization in the state he is believed to have a good chance of receiving the appointment.

ANNUAL TEA PARTY WONDERFUL SUCCESS

The annual tea party and dance held by St. Jerome's congregation on Wednesday afternoon and evening was an unprecedented success. The tea party proper was held at St. Jerome's Lyceum, and at the turkey supper served there were fully 700 people fed.

Dancing took place in Might's Auditorium, and so popular was it that one of the largest crowds ever gathered was present.

Thanksgiving afternoon children's day was observed at St. Jerome's Lyceum, and Thanksgiving evening a euchre was held, that was largely attended.

FUNERAL OF MRS. EMCH HELD TODAY

Mrs. I. T. Daniel and her mother, Mrs. James Aubrey, of Youngstown, O., who has been visiting in Charleroi for the past three months, left this morning, for Youngstown, O., to attend the funeral of Mrs. George Emch, which occurs there today.

Mrs. Emch, formerly of Charleroi, died Monday at midnight. Her death was due to acute brights disease. She is survived by her husband, George Emch, and three children, Edith, Virginia and William.

They moved from Charleroi to Youngstown about four years ago. Mrs. Emch was a member of the Lutheran choir, while they lived in Charleroi. Mr. Emch was employed with Claybaugh and Son, blacksmith. He is now in business for himself in Youngstown.

WEDDING OCCURS ON THANKSGIVING

One of the interesting Thanksgiving weddings was that performed on Thanksgiving morning at 10 o'clock at the rectory of St. Jerome's church, when Miss Gertrude Alma Blank became the bride of John Buchanan, of Charleroi. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. D. Fries, pastor of the church, with the sole attendants being Miss Freda Blank, a sister of the bride, and Frank Buchanan, a brother of the groom.

After the ceremony the couple left on a short wedding trip to Youngstown, Ohio. Upon their return they will take up housekeeping at a home already prepared on Washington avenue near Sixth street.

The bride is a young woman who enjoys a large circle of friends. She has been associated with the business life of the community for ten years, during which period she has held a clerical position with the firm of Kirk and Clark. Mr. Buchanan, the groom, is the representative here of the International Correspondence Schools, and a well known and much respected young man.

SPEAKER FIGHT WILL BE WAGED

With the withdrawal of James F. Woodward, of McKeesport, from the race for the speakership of the next house, according to news from Harrisburg it looks as though the contest had really narrowed down to Robert P. Habgood, representing the northwest; R. J. Baldwin, the eastern section outside of Philadelphia, and W. H. Wilson and T. F. Nichol, Philadelphia. George W. Williams, Tioga; F. Ehrhardt, Lackawanna, or H. I. Wilson, Jefferson, have followed up the mention of their names.

Baldwin has been making hay lately and has been building up an organization among the central members by swinging around the circle. Charles J. Roney, of Philadelphia, who was spoken of for speaker, is more likely to be floor leader again.

Woodward wants to be chairman of the appropriations committee again and so do Charles A. Ambler, Montgomery and Ehrhardt.

MILITARY GIRLS PRESENT PROGRAM

The Military Girls concert company of the Redpath-Brockway bureau entertained a good-sized audience at the high school auditorium Wednesday night with a musical program. Musical numbers ranging from the light to the classical were included in the program, which was interesting and lively. Violin and cornet work by two of the party of six was particularly good. All in the program was enjoyed, and the girls showed themselves capable. The next number on the entertainment course will be a lecture by Dr John Merrit Drive, on December 15.

EDMUND BURKE TO SING MONDAY AT PITTSBURGH

The sensational tour of Mme. Melba last season introduced to America an extraordinary singer in the person of Edmund Burke, the celebrated Irish barytone, who in an incredibly short time gained an enthusiastic following not only among his fellow Irishmen, but among the most discriminating music lovers and musicians throughout the country. Mr. Burke will be heard in Pittsburg again this season in a joint concert with Francis Macmillen, violinist, and Marie Hertenstein, pianist, in Carnegie Music hall on Monday evening, November 30. Mr. Burke is the possessor of a proud and glorious Irish name, a fine presence, and a voice of great power and vitality, which he uses with an artistry so rare that its charm is difficult to describe. Tears and laughter represent the extremes of emotion which Burke commands at will.

Francis Macmillen is a violinist of superb finish, technic, and great temperamental charm, whose return to Pittsburg will be most welcome. Marie Hertenstein is the young American pianist who was feted in Berlin during the past season, and who is to make her first Pittsburg appearance in this concert.

OFFERING FOR POOR IS UNION SERVICE FEATURE

Thanksgiving Observed by Churches and the Board of Charities

RELIEF WORK REPORTED

Union Thanksgiving services held at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church Thursday evening were well attended. Interesting addresses were made and splendid music was rendered. A liberal offering amounting to $28.50 was taken for the Associated Board of Charities.

All the Protestant ministers of the town were present and took part in the services. Rev. John R. Burson was chairman of the meeting. Rev. W. G. Carl spoke on "Cultivating the Thanksgiving Spirit," Rev. E. N. Dury spoke on "Social Thanksgiving." Rev. W. G. Mead spoke on "National Thanksgiving." Special music was a feature of the service. A solo by Miss Emma Clutter and an anthem by the choir were much enjoyed.

Dr. J. W. Hunter, president of the Associated Board of Charities, was present and spoke at length on the work that has been done by the charities board the past year. According to his report the charities board has done much more work than previous years. A large amount of clothing has been distributed and about $500 expended.

Thanksgiving was observed as a general holiday in Charleroi. Business houses, stores, banks, the post office and some of the factories were closed during the day. Many people went from here to Monongahela for the Charleroi-Monongahela football game. The day was quiet in Charleroi. There were no arrests made during the day or night.

Alumni To Play High

Football Game to Be Staged on Charleroi Field Saturday Afternoon

Tomorrow afternoon the last game of the football season will be played on the Charleroi field, and indications point to the belief that it will be a good one. The struggle will be between the Charleroi high school regulars which played a strong game at Monongahela Thanksgiving day and the Charleroi high school alumni team. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

In the alumni team will be such stars as "Cy" Stahlman, Jimmy Wagner, Dolan, H. Lowstuter, Ed. Lowstuter, Bruce Smith, Ternavsky, Hugus, Keith Campbell and Middleton.

MONON IS VICTORIOUS

High School Football Team Wins From Charleroi

Brilliant backfield and end work gave the Monongahela football team the victory over the Charleroi high school team in the final and deciding game of the season at Bryant's field, Monongahela Thursday afternoon. The score was 12 to 0.

The game was one of the prettiest and the cleanest ever played, and was viewed by fully 3,000 spectators from the two towns directly interested and from other valley points. Cheering sections worked themselves into a fine frenzy, the Charleroi red and black under Cheer Leader Hickey and the Monongahela red and white vieing in their noisy calls.

Every player on the two teams played a star game. Monongahela was surprised, not having realized in Charleroi so powerful and aggressive an enemy. Capt. Speers for Charleroi carried off the individual honors, but there was not a man on the team who did not play the best game in his career. Delvaux was a star and so was Ritchey, particularly in stopping the line rushes and in tackling, but then so were the rest. Wickerham shared Monongahela honors with Blankenbuehler.

The first half of the contest was a gruelling battle, with neither team getting an advantage. In the first half of the second quarter Monongahela high after some preliminary worked the ball to the 10 yard line. Line plunges took it to within three yards of the Charleroi line, and by a superhuman effort Murray was pushed through an opening for the first touchdown of the game. Wickerham failed on an attempted kick for goal. Blankenbuehler duplicated Murray's feat in the last quarter of the game, and again Wickerham failed to kick. The holding of the Charleroi line

DONATIONS MADE TO ROSCOE PEOPLE

Donations of the North Charleroi schools and the Earnest Workers' class of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, taught by Mrs. F. C. Stahlman were taken to Roscoe and turned over to the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church of the town Tuesday. The donations were used Thanksgiving day, and a note of thanks that likely will be published tomorrow has been received. North Charleroi school children held a package day, when $20 worth of groceries were contributed, together with numerous other things. The Earnest Workers class donated $4 in cash.

CHRISTMAS NEAR.

In this age of time-saving and efficiency, a united movement is on foot to induce people to do their Christmas and holiday shopping early. This should appeal directly to the merchant and retailer, as early shopping insures more business, more deliberate buying, more extensive buying and consequently much more business. With the bulk of the Christmas buying done beforehand and the larger and more expensive purchases made and disposed of more time and attention can be paid to the last rush, when every facility of the merchant is needed to dispose of the special Christmas goods which afford small profits and which entails a loss if carried over. Therefore early Christmas shopping means more business and more profits for the merchant.

This is perfectly clear and logical; but, to induce people to shop early the merchant must advertise early. How can people become inbued with the Christmas spirt—that which induces them to dip down into their pockets and spend their money—if there is nothing to stimulate this spirit? Most merchants make the mistake of waiting until two weeks before Christmas before making their holiday announcements, which only enables them to catch the rush trade instead of getting the trade of the deliberate and more extensive buyers. Mail order houses and Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York dealers are on the job, and are circulating their literature and prospectuses of Christmas goods. They capture some of the cream of the trade, which rightfully belongs to the home merchant.

City merchants are preparing to inaugurate an early shopping movement. They are doing this by advertising early and creating Christmas wants three or four weeks in advance of the ordinary period. Of course there will be the customary rush the last few days, but the merchant who has put in his licks early can watch the trade that he cannot serve in the final rush pass him by with complacency. The merchant who advertises will catch the most desirable of the early shoppers.

HABIT

Samuel C. Dixon, state commissioner of health, on his weekly talk on health and hygiene this week takes up "Habit" and discusses on whether it is a curse or blessing. He states:

Someone said that "Man is a creature of habit" permitting us to draw our own conclusions. We are perfectly familiar with bad habits. Even if we were not literally supplied with science, teachers and moralists are all enough to familiarize us with this side of the question. Fortunately there are good habits and they are often blessings truly exquisite. Our general health and well-being depends largely upon the character of our habits.

Regularity partakes something of virtue. This is especially true when it pertains to eating, sleeping, labor and recreation which covers the daily program of the majority of mankind. In the primitive state it was impossible for our ancestors to eat regularly. The hunter might be successful and again he might not. Periods of enforced fasting were followed by corresponding overindulgence when the chase was successful. The demand for food at regular intervals was the first stimulus to civilization. We have achieved a state where three meals a day are possible to the most of us. In gratitude we shall strive for moderation in knowing that in a few hours more food will be forthcoming.

Sleep is the great restorer of both body and brain. Irregular hours of rest result in an excessive strain upon the nervous system which in turn reacts unfavorably upon the human economy. Regularity in the periods of rest make for even temper and physical stability.

Labor to achieve worthy accomplishment must be steady and preserving. The habit of work is the necessity for one who would realize his ambitions.

Even in our recreations the majority of us are better for a certain degree of system for otherwise it is apt to become a case of over or under indulgence.

It is the same with our bodily functions—temperance and regularity are conductive to obtaining the maximum of efficiency for the longest period of time. Excessive friction and rust are equally hard upon machinery.

The formation of good habits in the care of the teeth, bathing, daily evacuations, eating, sleeping, exercise and living in fresh air will go far toward making the doctor's visit less frequent.

CHILDREN HONOR GUESTS AT SUPPER

Mrs. John O'Neill entertained nine children with a turkey supper Thursday evening. The children were some that have been helped by the Associated Board of Charities during the past year. Mrs. O'Neil gave them a splendid supper and entertained them royally. Following the supper they were taken in a body to the Union Thanksgiving services at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church.

Asbury Park Woman Had Complete Nervous Breakdown—Restored to Health by Vinol.

Asbury Park, N.J.—"I was in such a nervous, weak, run-down condition that I could not sleep nights, every little thing disturbed me, my appetite was very poor, and I was losing flesh. I was so nervous at times that I used to faint and have hysterics. I do my housework for a family of four, and they became alarmed at my condition. I tried beef, iron and wine and cod liver oil emulsions without benefit. One day our druggist suggested that I try Vinol and told me how it had helped others. I did so, and it has simply done wonders for me, as I am a well woman and entirely cured of my nervousness."—Mrs. KATHERINE E. KLEIN, Asbury Park, N.J.

Such reliable testimony should convince others of the value of Vinol, therefore if you are worn out, weak and nervous and want new strength and more vitality, we ask you to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic. If it fails to benefit you we give back your money.

Vinol is a constitutional remedy for all weak, nervous and run-down conditions of men, women and children.

BENTLEYVILLE

Allman Seriously Ill.

Seth D. Allman, a well-known resident of the South Main street residental section, is seriously ill at his home. The exact cause of the illness is unknown. Serious doubts are entertained regarding his recovery.

Quietly Married.

Thanksgiving evening there occurred a pleasant marriage in the Presbyterian parsonage. Rev. Craig performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Edward W. Ammon and Miss Isabelle Lawson, both popular young folk in the Bentleyville section. The newly married couple will continue to reside in Bentleyville.

Charged and Fined.

Wednesday evening Roman Kendza faced trial upon charges made by Michael Hosset, both of the Braznell section. Money matters were involved in the case. Roman recently came to the place. He acquired a position at the same mine as Michael, but not understanding the rules of the mine he worked under the same check number as Michael. When pay day rolled around Michael drew the salaries of both and failed to give Roman his share. Roman thereupon investigated matters and discovered himself to be cheated. He then had Michael arrested and sued for the amount of his wages. Roman won the case. He was given $30 while Michael was forced to pay a fine of $6 as well.

Robbery.

On the evening before Thanksgiving there occurred a small robbery at the Central Hotel. Early in the evening even before the guests had retired someone entered the larder on the rear of the porch of the hotel and stole the contents of a refrigator. Vegetables, meat, butter, milk and many other eatables were stolen. By the nature of the crime it is supposed that some poor folk, embarrassed financially and unable to have a Thanksgiving dinner stole the grub. No action, however, has been taken in the matter as yet. Several citizens have expressed their ideas that robberies would be plentiful in the section should the lack of employment continue to keep out during the winter months.

CATTLE EPIDEMIC NOW IS BELIEVED UNDER CONTROL

It is now believed that the foot and mouth disease can be stamped out without quarantining any more states. The quarantine against Canada was raised last Friday. The states most seriously affected now are Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania. The situation in Connecticut and Massachusetts still is grave. The disease in New York is fairly well in hand.

WAR NOTES

London, Nov. 27.—The British battle ship Bulwark has been blown up off Sheerness. Only 14 men out of the 700 or 800 on board were saved. According to a dispatch the loss of the Bulwark was due to an accidental explosion while ammunition was being loaded on the warship. It was impossible to give aid.

Paris, Nov. 27.—Subscriptions to the short term 5 per cent national defense bonds amounted Thursday to $140,000,000 for France alone. In addition 300,000,000 francs of treasury bonds are in circulation. The minister of fiance suggested a decree raising 1,400,000,000 francs.

London, Nov. 27.—It is reported that 2,000 Russians have been massacred at Tabriz by Persians. The British official press bureau says that the report appeared to be false.

Petrograd, Nov. 27.—In the direction of Erzerum the pursuit of the routed enemy had been terminated. In the past few days a series of engagements has taken place south of the valley of Alasehkerty. In Russian Poland one group of Rusian forces fettered the Austro-Germain army on the Czenstochowa-Cracow front, inflicting heavy blows and capturing guns and prisoners. Apparently another group of Rusians are holding at Wielum a German column which is endeavoring to go to the rescue of the Plock group. The main Rusian force is exclusively engaged against the Plock group whose front is in halves, with its right-half surounded on all sidess.

Geneva, Switzerland, Nov. 27.—Seven thousand refugees, mostly members of wealthy German families in Breslau, have arrived in Munich. The city is declared to be in a state of consternation owing to the reported approach of the Russians. Business is at a standstill.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. P. W. LANSENG, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

One dealer says—

"When a customer is undecided about which cigarette to try next, I always suggest FATIMA. Ninty-nine times out of a hundred he is pleased with the change and quits switching."

Smoke two or three packages of FATIMA and you will understand why this "distinctively individual" cigarette has a larger sale than any other cigarette of quality.

was something remarkable. Twice in the early stages of the game did Monongahela push the pigskin to within a short distance of the goal line, only to be held for downs by the stonewall Charleroi defense. Without the brilliancy in the backfield and on the ends, Monongahela would have been hopelessly outclased.

Monongahela worked successfully two forward passes, and Charleroi did not attempt any, simply from the reason that Monon was waiting for them. The biggest gains were made by C. H. S. through the line. H. Carson intercepted the first forward pass attempted by Monongahela and with a comparatively clear field started for the goal line. The psychology of things was that the pigskin wriggled from his grasp and the best chance Charleroi had to get a touchdown during the whole game was spoiled. Speers and Lowstuter did the booting for Charleroi and their kicking was magnificent. Hickey and Piersol time after time brought down Monongahela men on the end and helped in the work of breaking up interferences. Brown was everywhere, getting a full share of the tackles and doing his share of rushing through the line. On his sides, Lutes and Ryland, and later H. Carson performed nobly. Quarterback Booth was at all times master of the situation. Hepler failed to get in much of the struggle, but his line bucking while there was classy.

The lineup:

Charleroi—0		Monongahela—12
Hickey	LE	Wickerham
Delvauz	LT	Billick
Lutes	LG	Yohe
Brown	C	Anderson
Brown	RG	Badenschneider
Ritchey	RT	Abbott
Piersol	RE	Gusky
Booth	Q	Murray (Capt)
Lowstuter	LH	Albright
H. Carson	RH	Hill
Speers (Capt)	FB	Blankenbuehler

Substitutions—Charleroi-Hepler for H. Carson, H. Carson for Lutes; Monongahela—Vanderslice for Badenschneider, Downer for Gusky, Rodoan for Albright, Gusky for Downer, Albright for Rodoan.

Touchdowns—Murray, Blankenbuehler. Referee—"Biddy" Aiken, of W. & J. Umpire—Ashe, of University of Pittsburg. Head Linesman—Schrontz. Time of quarters—15 minutes.
